“ Dear Hightower Family, these thoughts come from my mother, Cora Hightower Graefe. She is very sad she couldn't make it, she is under the weather. She is upset she missed the chance to see relatives she hasn't seen in a long time. She sends her sympathy to the family. Please know she is thinking of you. Love, Cora Hightower Graefe

“ Dear Rance, Peggy Lynn, Scooter, Angie, Billy, Cory, and Annie, Aunt Ann will be missed by all of us. She left us with a lot of good memories. My sisters and I always had a good time with her. Aunt Ann, Aunt Peggy, and Aunt Mona have always been protective over all of us kids!!! Rance, your mom did not ever have the word "Can't" in her vocabulary. I remember when we were at your house and Magnolia and she rode your motorcycle. There was always room for adventure. We all loved her and we knew she loved all of us! Aunt Ann is in a much better place now and God has his arms wrapped around her for sure. We are so sorry for your loss. We love all of you! Love, Robert, Natalie, Ashley, Cassie, Caitlin, Cody, and Valerie.

“ To all the Hightower and Wells families: MoMo lived her life purely to serve. She served her Lord, her husband, her children, her grandchildren, her friends, and her community. She was always kind, compassionate, and Christ like. She was dedicated and sincere and I never heard her say anything negative about anyone. When she did say something, it was always in a gentle way as to build the person up and not discourage them or make them feel less. She was humble. I loved the time we were able to spend together and enjoyed many family times with her and JB, Rance, Rosie, Annie, Scooter, Allen, Angie, Stacey, Billy, Corey, Peggy, Ma, and all the Hightower sisters’ and brothers’ families that she loved so much. You all had a wonderful Mother, Grandmother, Sister, and Aunt; for that count yourself very blessed by our Heavenly Father, God. In His name I ask for a time of peace and comfort for the family that remains on earth, and a time of sheer joy for those in heaven at the HOMECOMING with MoMo. Love, Mike and Shannon Scacewater (Annie’s Mom and Step dad)
