“ I am so sorry for your loss. Don was the first person to welcome me to Gas Accounting, we spent countless hours discussing politics, although we could never agree on anything since we seemed to be on the opposite side of every issue. But it was great talking to him. I learned a lot from him. The Adams family are in my prayers.

May his soul rest in perfect peace.

Thank you, Hakeem. Donald always spoke well of you, and I know he enjoyed your conversations. My brother could always argue politics, I think he got that from our Dad! We appreciate your remembrance of him and the added prayers for the family.

Of all people, I think we heard your name the most, Hope. Donald considered you a good friend and it did my heart good to know he had someone he could count on to discuss problems and share joy with. We appreciate your prayers and I thank you for being a friend to my brother. ~ Diane Shepard
