“ Donna was always "Donnie" to me. I loved her. She was a wonderful cousin, and Gail and I loved spending time with her and her sister Kay (and all their brothers) out in the country. Donnie was always so fun-loving. She had the ability to make even mundane things seem exciting. I will always remember her smiling and laughing. I rarely saw her any other way. Even during her illness she had a wonderful outlook and a grace that was inspirational. I'm sure right now Uncle Charlie and Aunt Doris and Tommy are welcoming her to Heaven along with my mother, her Aunt Chris. Even though we didn't see each other that often, all of us in the extended family will miss her. Having known her has been a gift.

Charlie, Stacie, Brandy, and Anthony, my heart goes out to all of you and your families.

Love,

Pam
