

Earline Warner Puckett

November 30, 1933 - November 15, 2010

Earline Warner Puckett Earline Warner Puckett was born November 30, 1933 in Midfield, Texas. She is the daughter of James and Jessie Warner. On November 11, 2010, Earline went to be with her Lord and Savior. She was 76. Earline was a stay at home mom for her two children and husband until the children began school at which time she went to work with Southwestern Bell. After over 30 years service, Earline retired some 26 years later. As a mom she was always reminding her children that they grew within her heart, not under her heart. Earline was proud to say her children were chosen children. As a pet lover, Earline was caring for "Stormy", her dog. She is preceded in death by parents, James and Jessie Warner; husband, George L. Puckett; and son, George Arthur "Art" Puckett. Earline is survived by daughter, Karen Guedry; grandson, Shane Puckett; granddaughter, Kelli Guedry; granddaughter, Rachel Guedry; sisters, Tess Isely and Geneva Russell; brothers, James "Bubba" Warner and W.B. Warner; and numerous nieces and nephews. Services will be held for Earline Puckett Monday, November 15, 2010, 2:00 p.m. at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home Chapel in Huntsville, Texas with interment to follow at Adickes Addition of Oakwood Cemetery in Huntsville. Family will receive friends Sunday, November 14, 2010, from 5:30-7:30 p.m. at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home. Those wishing to leave memorial condolences for the family may do so at www.shmfh.com
