

Earnest Brown

February 2, 1917 - April 1, 2008

Earnest Brown was born February 2, 1917 in Glendale, Texas to Joe and Mary (Allen) Brown and passed away on March 29, 2008 in Huntsville, Texas. He was preceded in death by his parents, the mother of his children; three brothers, Joseph, Roger and Earl; and three sisters, Loni, Lilly and Viola. He is survived by son and wife, Howard Earnest and Sue Brown; son and wife, Glenn and Kathy Delaney of Conroe; son, Jim Delaney of Huntsville; daughter, Mary Ann Hoot of Huntsville; daughter and husband, Susie and Danny Oliveraz of Huntville; brother, Ray Brown of Huntsville; brother, Leon Brown of Huntsville; brother, Levi Brown of Huntsville; brother, Billy Mack Brown of Houston; brother, Glenn Brown of Porter; sister, Mamie Rutledge of Houston; sister, Eloise Allen of Huntsville; 13 grandchildren; and 23 great-grandchildren and great great grandchildren. With his family, Mr. Brown moved to West Sandy at the early age of 7 or 8 years old. He and his wife lived in the log cabin that now sits across from the Walker County Courthouse. He worked as a welder during WWII in the shipyards in Houston. After the war, Mr. Brown purchased a farm in Phelps and worked for the railroad approximately 10 years. He worked both in Huntsville and Jasper in the tire business and retired 29 years ago from the Maintenance Department of Huntsville Memorial Hospital. He always had a "green thumb" being able to grow great gardens. Services will be on Tuesday, April 1 at 10:00am in the Chapel of the Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home. His grandsons will serve as pallbearers. Interment will be at Farris Cemetery. Visitation will be Monday, March 31 from 5-7:00pm. The family would like to give a special thanks to Dr. Knuth and the staff at Huntsville Family Medicine and Texas Home Health Care. Memorial condolences may be made to the family at www.shmfh.com.
