

Edith Marie Brown

February 8, 1930 - September 5, 2014

Our family lost a precious treasure September 2, 2014 in Huntsville Texas. Today we find comfort in knowing she resides in her eternal home with her Savior the Lord Jesus Christ. She was born on February 8, 1930 in Richards, Texas to Lee and Maggie Williams. Her mother Maggie was buried on her thirteenth birthday and her father Lee passed away when she was sixteen years of age. She then went to work and helped raise her 3 siblings. Our mother was always a hard worker and loved her family more than life. She was married to the love of her life and our loving father, Ray Brown, for 64 years who has also gone to be with the Lord on January 14, 2013. Mom loved to cook and work in her yard. Her home was always spotless and she had a way of making people welcome at her home. Anyone who needed food to eat was welcome at her table and if they needed a place to live, they were welcome to live with us. Mom and Dad moved to Pasadena when we were very young and we finished school there. Mom went to Pasadena Senior High School where she finished her schooling. Later in life they moved back to Huntsville that they called home. She worked for Rice Food Market where she retired. Mom taught us to love the Lord and love each other, by her actions she taught us humility, respect, and never to be judgmental. Our mom loved her family unconditionally and worked hard to keep us together. In Scripture in the book of James it says, "not to just read the Word, but do what it says." She was one who lived her faith. We all knew she loved the Lord by the way she lived her life and how she treated others. I know that when she entered the gates of Heaven and looked upon the face of her Jesus and He said to her “welcome home my daughter”, it made all the hardships she had endured worth it. Pallbearers to serve are Raymond Haley, Brandon Hoke, Justin Brown, Bobby Clyde Hearne, Donald Brown, Dennis Beard, Robert Morton and Douglas Hoke. Honorary pallbearers are great-grandsons Caleb, Jax and Charlie. She is survived by children Cecil and Robin Brown of Tennessee, Glenda and Tommie Haley of Huntsville, Judy and Floyd Hoke of Huntsville, and Bobby Clyde and Francis Hearne of Livingston; brothers and sisters Walter Lee and Evelyn Williams of Kilgore, Texas, Harold and Dee Williams of West Columbia, Texas, Earlene Brown of Conroe, Texas, Yvonne Brown of Huntsville, Texas, and Doris Foley of Angleton, Texas; grandchildren Raymond Haley of The Woodlands, Texas, Lisa Brown of Huntsville, Texas, Dana Holladay of Carrizo Springs, Texas, Nathan Hoke and wife Hayley of Bedias, Texas, Brandon Hoke and wife Amber of Bedias, Texas, Cecil Robert Brown, Jr. of Ohio, and Angie Grace Bass of Tennessee; great-grandchildren Justin, Caleb, Cori, Jax and Charlie.
