“ To know that without Edna I would not have my mother, or my children. I will be forever grateful for the gift of life she gave us. Thank you, may you forever rest in peace!

“ I believe people are mortalized by the memories they leave behind. They never die if they are always in your heart. Now is the time to remember the fond times you shared with her. The times she taught you those important tips to a fuller happier life. She will be passed down her family by the memories you share with each other.
