

Edward Joseph "Eddie Joe" Brown

January 31, 1958 - December 15, 2016

Edward Joseph Brown lived a blessed 58 years. He was born on January 31, 1958 to Robert Barclay Brown and Betty Joe Wilson in San Jacinto City, also known as Houston, Texas. He lived his younger years near Houston, but settled in Huntsville, Texas where he lived out his days. He passed peacefully on December 15, 2016 at Huntsville Memorial Hospital.

Eddie Joe, as he was called was an extremely intelligent, deeply feeling person who would make sure that his family had their needs met at all times, regardless the cost. He was a dreamer who strived to make his dreams come true like building a home from scratch where he could raise up his family. He accomplished anything he set his mind to. His passion was truck driving and after years of owning his own small-town electronics shop and serving his community, he decided to go back on the road once again. Together with his supportive wife they traveled the US making some of the best memories of his life. He continued to drive for quite some years until his health took a turn. He lived the rest of his days on the lake doing other things he loved so much like fishing, (more fishing), watching movies and football, taking care of his pets, and most importantly spending quality time with his family.

He is survived by his wife of 37 years Rhonda Darlene Brown; daughter Christina Marie Brown-Loeffler; son Robert Joseph Brown; grandchildren Madison and Dillon Grady, Thomas and Kaden Brown; his sisters Rocki

Bolton and husband Glen, Michelle Puget, and Jackie Ramsey; his brother James Allen & wife Janette; mother-in-law Alice Owens; as well as his loving nieces, nephews, and other friends.

The family will be welcoming friends on Tuesday December 20, 2016 from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home located in Huntsville, Texas.

Thank you for your prayer and condolences.
