“ What a wonderful person. Ed always had time for everyone he knew. He also always had a story to tell. He would always find away to talk about his family and how proud he was of all of them. Ed also insured everyone knew he loved the lord. Ed will be greatly missed not only as a co-worker but a friend. God Bless

“ I will really miss Ed at work. I so enjoyed his funny stories and will always remember his heart felt laugh and love for Connie. The people in the front office called them "The Lovebirds" because when Connie drop him off Ed would stay outside and wave to her until he could not see the car anymore. My sincere sympathy to his family.

“ Connie, Nathan, Angela, Jonathan, Lorianne & Auntie Ruth,

No Farewell Words Were Spoken, No Time To Say Goodbye, You Were Gone Before We Knew It, And Only God Knows Why.

So many wonderful memories of times spent with you all during holidays in Lompoc. I'll always remember Ed's graciousness and the spirit of good-fellowship he extended.

May the Eternal Loving Spirit of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit envelope you all with comfort.

Love, Victor DeWitt

“ Ed was always there with a smile on his face and a lot of fun to be around here at work. He always had answers to my questions and was more than willing to help.

I will miss him very much, his shoes will be hard to fill.

Thank You Ed for the good memories.

“ Dear Connie & family,
We want to send our condolences to you in the loss of your husband & father. My mother, Margaret Faulkner, spoke highly of you when she went to Lompoc with Ora Trammel to meeting. Two of your Ed's relatives live near us-Jean Weir & Sandra Randall.
Sincerely & with Symapthy, Ed & Cate

“ Always enjoyed Ed's big smile and warm greeting when I came to Conroe. The times I spent in his & Connie's home are precious.

I miss you already Ed!

Our sincere sympathy to all the family.

“ What an amazing man Ed was. So quick to laugh in that boisterous way that had everyone within earshot giggling. So kind to everyone. So patient. The quiet way he'd read his Bible during a break; the true concern he had for everyone's well-being; the joy he had in his family ("there's nothing like grand-babies"); the way he would hover over Connie, blessing her for her return trip whenever she dropped him off for work. We'll miss you, dear Ed.

“ We are so sorry to hear about Ed. We hold precious memories of his sense of humor and twinkle in his eyes when being mischievous. May God surround each one of you with His everlasting love and comfort. With deepest sympathy and love, Uncle Bert, Linda & Mike (and family), Donna (and family), and Thelma & Stan (and family).

“ So sorry to hear about Ed's passing and we want all of you to know that we're thinking of each one with love, sympathy and care. We remember our younger days with our families and kids and all the good times we spent together. Although Ed is now gone, we can keep his memory of his life in our hearts. It's good to know he's finished the course faithfully. May you know God' comfort at this time of sorrow.

Our love, Walter and Linda Weeda and family
