“ Only Ed, best man at my wedding along with Lucille as my matron of honor as I married her brother Roger. The usual Ed games...and thank you Ed for letting just enough air out of all four tires on Roger's car so that we could only get from the house to the gas station down the street to leave on our honeymoon. I can hear you chuckling then laughing out loud at your best man's trick. Say hi to Roger and other family members for me. What a Best Man. Rest In Peace.

“ I loved your daddy so much. Fond memories, but a few not so, lol. 5 minute showers were only allowed. He would loudly announce, on sleep overs, 5 minutes until the feet hit the ground. I'll never forget when I ate cereal one time, he would not let me get up until I finished all my milk in the bowl. I won that round after about 2 hours! I will miss you so much, not as only a father figure, but also as a boss. You proudly hired me in 1989 to help out at Jiffy Lube to help run the computers. You and daddy have a toast in Heaven!
