

Edward W Pierce

June 19, 1958 - January 12, 2022

With deepest sorrow, we announce that Edward William Pierce ("Eddie"), born June 19, 1958, (age 63), our most beloved son, brother, family member and friend went home to meet our Lord on Wednesday, January 12, 2022, while in the hospital.

Those who knew Eddie, even just a little, lost a shining light in their lives. Eddie was a happy go lucky guy that lived life his way. "Uncle Eddie was a thoughtful, generous, kind, genuine and loving Uncle." From an early age Eddie remained a muscle car fanatic and very passionate about NASCAR. If the race was on TV, you can be sure that Eddie was there front and center rooting for his favorite driver #18 Kyle Busch. When football season came around - Eddie always cheered for his favorite team, The Dallas Cowboys.

Eddie will be missed everyday by his mother, Roseann Pierce, his three sisters and their spouses Debbie Amrhine, Donald Amrhine, Susan Perugini, Michael Perugini, Roxane Pierce, his two nephews, Sean Perugini and Justin Pierce, his loving Aunt Maudie Kinler, Cousins and many great friends.

We know Eddie is now with his Daddy, Willie Frank Pierce, along with his Grandparents, Great Grandparents and other relatives that have passed before him and is loved here on earth as well as in heaven.

We LOVE and MISS you so much my Son, Brother and Friend. XOXO

Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home, 1700 Normal Park, Huntsville, Texas. Eddie's Funeral Service will be offered at 2:00 pm on Saturday, January 22, 2022 at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home followed by a graveside prayer at The McAdams Cemetery.

The Family especially thank the Pallbearers:

Justin Pierce, Michael Amrhine, Donald Amrhine, Richard Grigsby, Gary Kinler, and Lester Wareham - Eddie's Lifelong Childhood Friend

In the words of Eddie "Thanks Man"

Friends and family are invited to visit with Eddie's family prior to the funeral service at the funeral home from 1:00 pm. to 2:00 PM on January 22, 2022.

For those who wish, in lieu of flowers, Eddie's family would appreciate donations to any charity of your choice in memory of him. Memorial condolences may be made to the family at www.shmfh.com.

Don't think of him as gone away his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.

*****

To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful, I will never return, To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.

I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So as you stand upon a shore gazing at a beautiful sea, As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity, Remember me.

Remember me in your heart:
Your thoughts, and your memories, Of the times we loved,
The times we cried, The times we fought, The times we laughed.
For if you always think of me, I will never have gone.

Dear Brother

We shared so many happy loving times together – YOU were my Happy go Lucky Charm! Our journey through Life hasn't been kind at times, but it made us strong as a Family.

Your beautiful smile, gentle soul and kindness shined through. Those who knew you were touched by your down to earth personality and kind heart. You lived your life to the fullest and on your terms never complaining when times got tuff, instead you challenged the opportunity to see something good in return with a smile.

You trusted your sisters, mom and family with all your heart to make the best discussions for you at the end and we did so with all our Love for you! We fought beside you every step of the way with compassion, love and support, cheering you on to pull through and you tried very very hard my Brother. GOD had other plans for you and took you home, free of pain and suffering.

I know in my heart you are ok looking down with a smile watching over us all. Brother I will miss you every day! Life without you will not be the same. I can only find comfort in the days ahead of the fond loving memories you left behind and from the signs from Heaven you will bring to us here on Earth. Until we meet again my Brother, I will celebrate the Life we shared together. I LOVE YOU WITH ALL MY HEART!!!!

“ There's a hole in my heart because my brother is gone. And now I can only fill it with good memories from our time spent together. My brother was an easygoing, caring, loving, thoughtful, happy-go-lucky guy. And I'll miss all of those things about him. In fact, I'll miss ALL of Eddie. I'll miss his stubbornness and his ridiculous love of Fords. I'll even miss the silly arguments we had when we inevitably got on each other's nerves. The truth is that my brother played a big role in my life; some of it for just simply being there when I needed him most and some of it for the necessary basics, like teaching me to drive, to work on cars and even how to party. He looked after me and saved my bacon more than once! He taught me how to fix a flat, because he didn't want his baby sister to be stranded on the side of the road. When I had car trouble, I could count on him to help me diagnose the problem and eventually, come by to help me fix it. I'm not talking about a battery or filter. He helped me swap out engines and transmissions. He taught me how to change a rear seal, rebuild a carburetor and even install a 'badass' stereo. We shared a lot of good times together: going to the beach, car shows, pick-a-part car lots and some concerts . I remember us going to see Aerosmith and Def Leopard in concert together and we had a bad ass time.

When Justin was born, Eddie couldn't have been a more proud and loving uncle. He gladly came to all the birthday events and Christmas parties that he could. Throughout Justin's childhood, Uncle Eddie would interact with him on occasion, but also he would often quietly watch in the background. He was so much more observant than people knew because he could be so quiet. And this ability would show itself in the tender and thoughtful gifts he gave to us.

I'm gonna miss you brother, so deeply. You were my hero and my knight in shining armor. My comfort is knowing that you lived your life on your terms and that you will be with dad now. I know in my heart that one day we will be together again.

I will always love you and cherish our memories together, your little sister

“ My dear sweet brother - I love you and miss you so very much. You were our big brother - the fourth corner to our square - without you we are a mere tripod. I know that you are now dancing with the glorious angels above, safely home with our Lord. We never missed an opportunity to tell each other “I Love You” and I can still hear your sweet voice telling me so. Each and every Memory that God gave to us growing up together will forever remain in my heart. “I love you Eddie” You are now at Peace - Forever in my Heart until we meet again. x0x0x0 (Susan)

“ *Praying for peace and comfort to the entire Pierce family. Eddie was a great guy that I will always have fond memories of. He and I had a lot of good times together when we were young. I am so glad I got to visit and spend some time with him recently. Rest In peace Eddie, in God’s care.
