“ Donna and family,

Strange things happen - just this past weekend I was going thru John-Randall's baby box and found the quilt your Mom made for him in honor of your grandfather (the one with trains). Ive saved it so when he has a son he can pass it down along with the wonderful story of your Mom and yall and how you all touched our lives. To know now that as I hold it I hold a piece of your mother close to me means the world. It was so strange how we met (me going to my Mammaws old house and her opening the door then a few days later her coming into Dr Harts office with your grandfather) and how we connected. In that first visit she made me feel like I was extended family and I felt her love and kindness immediately. I will miss her alot and the smile that warmed the world. One day Ill have the pleasure of telling my (hopeful) grandson about an amazing woman and her family and what they brought with that warm smile to me and my family. Love to you all. And Im here if you need me...anytime.

“ You know its funny how you have this picture of your loved ones and think that there is just that one side to them, then in times like these you meet their friends and loved ones that show you a whole new side. Thank you to all of the friends for sharing your stories and memories of such an amazing woman. Its a great feeling to hear of all the lives you've touched Gma, and the love and happiness that you brought to so many. We love and miss your smile and that contagious laugh.

“ You were truly a special women. I will miss you being my helper when someone new moved in or came to visit. You had a way of always smiling and making them feel welcome. Everytime I drink a COKE I will think of you and how special you were to me. We had some good times and great memories in the short amount of time I got to know you that I will carry with me for many years. Donna, I know this is a hard time for you and your family. I wish I could take away the pain but that is something that over time will get better. You had a very special mom that loved you so much and thought the world of you.

“ Mom, I truly under-estimated the impact that losing you would have on me. I knew it would be difficult, but not like this. I will cherish the memories and rejoice in the fact that you no longer are hurting and struggling. Richard is right, you showed a lot of stamina in your life. And yes, you loved your family dearly. That's one thing I never questioned. Thank you for giving me life and for loving me unconditionally. I love you, Mom.

“ A lovely woman that loved her family dearly has joined her father in heaven. She is sitting at his side and preparing a place for us as well. Let's rejoice in her life and her commitment to the Lord. She smiles gracefully at us all. I can feel her spirit hug me and I hope you can too. My sincerest condolences to you all.
