“ *We wish to send you our condolences. Elisa was one in a million. She loved you all so dearly. These are some things we remember the most. Tamale making time. I'd go over (with anyone else we could get to help!) We made dozens and dozens of tamales. She'd cook the meat and we all made masa and put it on the husks. They were oh so good. We remember our times of camping both out at Trinity or down in the valley. We loved playing Jokers with them. Lisa was my partner but she wouldn't look my way because she knew I'd be trying to tell her something. Elisa wouldn't cheat! We ended up winning most of the time. I'm sure Mike and Ken thought differently. Long ago I asked Lisa how she managed to raise such great kids. I'll never forget what she said. It was "I hit them first (with a baseball bat) then tell them what I want!" Elisa was one blessed lady. Ken and I feel blessed to have called her friend. With our love and prayers,
Sharon and Ken.*

“ Mike,
*I am so sorry to have heard of your wife's passing I know you loved her very much and that she fought a long, hard battle. I know she is at peace now.and her body is whole again.
May you and your family be in peace and remember her in her health and her valiant fight. My prayers and thoughts are with you all. Love, Gina*
