“ I recently found out about dear Liz's passing. Gosh, we laughed and laughed . . . and laughed! Lizard was the best! My father developed Alzheimer's in his sixties and passed at 72 so I so feel your pain. I am planning a trip to Texas in September and have communicated with Sharon Johnston. Asked about seeing Liz. :(

All the best.

“ I cannot tell you HOW MANY times Liz had me laughing when we worked together at Goree. I HATE to see this in the paper, and I apologize for not seeing it soon enough to pay my respects. I am so very sorry for your loss, as it is a huge loss indeed. I have SO many great memories of her, she was timeless, beautiful, and hilarious. She will be missed TREMENDOUSLY. I love you Liz!
