“ My dear FRIEND! Always had time to stop and check on me, and to visit for awhile. Liz will always be in our hearts, and missed so very much. We all laughed, cried, and shared our problems with each other. I know everyone at our Church will be heart broken every time we look at the empty space where she always sat. She was a very special lady, with so much love and compassion for others!!!! God Bless you dear friend! Rest in Peace and rejoice, your now home!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

“ A friend posted this link on her Facebook page and it was when I saw Ms. Liz that I realized this was the sweet lady that rocked my babies (Hannah 21) (Madison 18) at Bentonwood Farms so many years ago when they were so tiny and young. She was a super sweet lady and loved those kiddos. My thoughts and prayers to the family and to sweet Ms. Liz, may she rest in peace knowing many people have been touched by her gentle spirit.

“ Sorry to hear about your loss. Such a great lady and cousin. The family is in my thoughts and prayers. We moved from Huntsville last year to Goliad but before our move, we would bump into each other and talk about our families.

Liz's mother and my grandmother (Claudie Blackman) were sisters. FYI since some of her family might not remember me. May His peace and comfort be with you during your time of sorry.
