“ Dear James and Family, it is with great sorrow that I learned of the passing of Miss Ella. She was a wonderful Christian lady and a friend. She gave me great guidance and advice 38 years ago when I was a young college student and we worked together. She was a tremendous influence on my life. She had a wonderful laugh and a sense of humor that gave you a feeling of joy when you were around her. Something I did not know until today is her middle name Laverne. This is my mother's first name. May God bless you and your family.

“ *James, Bridgette, Mike, your children & family:
I just now was able to get to this page.
Just know that I thought so much of Ella; she was such a caring and giving person. I'm so glad she had become a part of our church!
The service for her was beautiful..., beautiful for a beautiful Christian lady! Faye*
