

Elna Jean (Prater) Johnson

September 17, 1933 - March 4, 2024

Elna (Jean) Prater Johnson, 90, passed away peacefully at home where she lived since her marriage to Wallace Johnson on July 12, 1951, after he wore her down (his words) Jean passed on March 4, 2024 peacefully with her family by her side. Jean was born September 17, 1933 in Frost Texas. Her youth was spent with her family as migrant workers traveling from Texas to Arizona. They finally settled in Dacus, Texas.

Jean was a loving mother, grandmother, great grandmother, great great grandmother

She started her married life as a housewife and mother of 4. When the children were old enough she joined the work force at the local USPS. She worked there for 25 years which she enjoyed. Not just the work but all the people on her route of which many came to know and love her. Even though she enjoyed her work she enjoyed her flowers so much more. After retirement her and her husband Wallace worked with Texas Baptist Men, helping build or expanding churches as well as worshipping while they worked, what a blessing they received being able to serve.

Jean is survived by her children Brenda Allshouse with her husband Raymond, Lisa Johnson, Merlyn Johnson, and Shelia McBroom with her husband H L. Four grandchildren Keith McBroom, Tomas McBroom wife Sarah, Monika McBroom Dey husband Jase and James McBroom wife

Crystal. Eight Great Grandchildren, David Johnson Jr., Daphne Johnson, Dallas Johnson whom Jean helped raise, Madison Wark, Anabelle McBroom, Violet McBroom, Raynee Dey and Sonny Dey. Seven Great Great Grandchildren as well as many other relatives whom she loved dearly. Preceded in death by her husband Wallace Johnson and her grandson David Johnson.

“ Jean and Wallace were community stalwarts. I have fond memories of visiting in their home and was thrilled when they came to La Grange to assist the Second Baptist Church build its church annex. That is the last time I saw Jean and Wallace. We just picked up where we left off in the late '50's. 🙏
