

Elsie Lang

June 15, 1932 - August 24, 2013

Elsie M. Hughes Lang was born north of Butler, OK, June 15, 1932, to David Owen and Beulah Hughes. She died August 17 at St. Luke's Hospital, The Woodlands, TX. Elsie attended Southwestern Oklahoma State University, attaining her Bachelors and Masters of Education degrees. After teaching in several western Oklahoma communities, she started teaching at SWOSU in 1971 and taught English there until her retirement in 1985. Elsie and R. Park Lang were married July 2, 1974, and celebrated 39 years of marriage this year. When Park retired in 1997 as SWOSU's Art Department Chairman, they moved to Montgomery, TX. Elsie was preceded in death by her parents David and Beulah; and her father-in-law and mother-in-law Vernon and MJ Lang. Elsie is survived by her husband Park; daughter and son-in-law Kathy and Gene Meier of Weatherford, OK; and daughter and son-in-law Susan and Gerald Nickel of Seminole, OK. Other survivors are grandchildren JD and Kalli Strong of Oklahoma City; Kristy and Derek VanDorn of Edmond; Cole and Sarah Huckleberry of Oklahoma City; Reed Huckleberry of Shawnee, OK; Krystal and Jeff Moses of Weatherford, OK; and Justin Meier of Parker, CO. She is also survived by great grandchildren Edyn, Cassidy, Kamdyn, Kate, Abbie, Hayley, Jackson, and Cooper. Visitation in Willis, TX, has been arranged by Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home for Wednesday, August 21, from 3-5 PM. Graveside services will be held on Saturday, August 24, at 10 AM at Greenwood Cemetery, Weatherford, OK, by Lockstone Funeral Home, Rev. Rick Connelly officiating. Visitation will follow at the Federated

Church in Weatherford. In lieu of flowers, if you are interested in making a scholarship donation, please consider the Southwestern Oklahoma State University Scholarship Fund, 100 Campus Dr., Weatherford, OK, 73096.
