“ Prayers for the family. EJ taught our youngest many years ago at Richards I.S.D.. She was a wonderful teacher. In the last year or so we have seen her at The Home Depot while we were shopping and we shared different memories about kids and our lives since then. She will be missed by all who knew her.

“ I simply want to say that one of my best friends has left us. We shared a lot with each other, in art discussions and in life matters. There is none other like E.J. and I will miss her so much. She so loved her family and fought for each day with them. I am thankful she was in my life and was my friend. My love to Claude and each of the family!

“ EJ leading a Chinese dragon of children or teaching them measurements by mixing ingredients for a recipe, this was the lady we knew. The lady with the beautiful smile who loved her family so much. Oh, the stories I could tell.
