“ We read many of the above condolences and one thing does stand out. Many, many of the people who know all of you especially Emily have commented on her being a fine Christian. We are very impressed by the many people who are really witnesses to the fact that Emily was a wonderful Christian and her light shined as one apparently. There is no telling how many persons became Christians because of Emily was a Christian witness to them! There is no doubt she is in Heaven enjoying herself and waiting on her family and friends. As our pastor said recently: "If we could only get a 1 minute glimpse into what is going on in Heaven and what it looks like, folks we would be jumping off the top of this church to get there". Certainly we would be jealous of what Emily and all our Christian loved ones already there! By the statements of the many condolences above about Emily, its obvious that early in life, Emily told Jesus Christ that she BELIEVED AND ACCEPTED Him as her personal LORD/MASTER and SAVIOR. She apparently truly believed in John 3:16; Romans 10:9-13; John 1:12, John 6:40, etc. We pray that when each of you passes this life, that God lets Emily come get you and usher you HOME! God Bless You ALL.

It has been years since we have had a chance to visit and I haven't seen Emily since she was a small child.. but I just had to let you know that we have been thinking of you ever since we heard of her death. I can't imagine a thing to say that would help..but I wanted to let you know we were thinking of you, we love you and always remember that you have the faith to get you through even this. “ It has been so many years since we have seen each other. Our friend, Emory Ellis, from GPISD called yesterday to tell us about Emily. I remember her only as a child; a beautiful child. From everything I have read in this memoriam, she grew up to be a very special young woman. I know the sadness you must be feeling right now. We still ache when we think about Joy's son, Michael, being taken from us when he was 16 years old. We know that they are with our Lord, but our hearts still ache for them. We lost our Dad, Sam Duff, on December 20, so this has been a sad season for our family. We moved back "home" in 1995 and our youngest child, Heather, will graduate from Livingston this May. Our son, Gary, Jr., is in Iraq. Prayer is the only way to keep sane. I will keep you and your family in my prayers as well. All our love, Susie & Gary Witte

“ Dear John, Beth and Boys,
It is with great sadness that we send you all our thoughts and prayers. Emily, as a child was a delight and it seems as a "young woman" even more so. Daddy always spoke so lovingly of you all. John, you took such great care of him during his last working years..... I like to think that he was one of the 1st to "hug" Emily and will finally get to help you. The land of Heaven is much richer and the Master surely had the choir assembled for Emily's homecoming. Can you imagine? Think on those things good.

I'm sure the loss to everyone left behind is insurmountable and God will send His Comforter.
He keeps His promises.

Dianne and I were just discussing Emily taking mother to school for "show 'n tell". Dianne said she thought it was because mother was good with gardening; however, I remember it a little differently.....seems somehow I got the impression that mother was just the "oldest" person that Emily knew.

Love to all of you,

“ Beth, John and boys,
Susie called tonight (1/11) to let me know that she had just received a message about Emily's passing. My memories of Emily are of the beautiful little girl who came to Mother's Day Out at Uvalde Baptist so many years ago and was a joy to be around. Please know that my heart aches for you all. The last thing a parent wants to face is losing one of their children and it is the hardest thing to accept that they are no longer with us on this earth, but there is also deep comfort in knowing that they are now with our Lord and Savior in Heaven. I know all too well the deep pain and grief you are going through, but God will carry you through this time as he did us when we lost our son in 1984. The memories in your heart will never dim the her memory to you all. Our love and prayers to you all.

“ Emily was an incredible person with deep devotion & faith - she touched many people's lives. It saddens me for your family to go thru such a loss. We can never understand why - but the faith and trust that we have for our Lord show us that people like Emily are put into our lives for a reason - and we are to be thankful for what precious time we had her. Many lives were touched by her and her purpose here on earth was very clear. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers always. God Bless

“ I was one of Emily's sorority sisters in Sigma Phi Lambda and also a charter member with her. We also took a drawing class together last fall. She was such an amazing woman of God. She was beautiful, funny, very warm, and very talented. I remember her telling us about how she was going to go to London to study and we all gave her a hard time b/c we were so jealous..haha. I saw her when she had come back a Relay for Life and we hugged and she told me all about London and how much fun she had and how blessed she felt that she got to go. She was an amazing woman, she will be greatly missed. I'm glad that I got to know her as a friend, classmate, sorority sister, and sister in Christ. ~Jamie

“ To the Mullin's family: I was so sorry to hear of your loss. Emily was always so sweet. I remember how Emily's bright smile could light up a room. Surrounded by friends, she always seemed to embrace every high school experience, truly enjoying every moment-and making every moment count. From what I read, it seems Emily continued to live life to its fullest, and I hope that is some comfort to you. Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. God bless you.

“ When I reflect back to 1990, I remember walking into a church for the first time to hear the message of Salvation. I have always remembered one man with a smiling daughter who welcomed us and made me loved. It was John and his precious daughter. “ Dearest Beth, John, John, and Justin and extended family, I lift you all up to our God and may he hold you all so tightly. May you all support and comfort each other in days to come in this time of loss of such a PRECIOUS SOUL as your EMILY! I truly have mourned your loss and praised God for the example Emily was to her peers. My husband and I sat with her at Cristi Jones wedding in Nov. wow what a true blessing of a true christian young woman. We spoke of her as we left what a fine young christian woman. Her words she spoke her actions were still of an Angel of God put here on earth. May her life bring in at least one to know God with the understanding that she lived. Oh my as so many say her smile will remain in my heart and my soul forever! I also thank God, he chose your family to have one of his most beloved angels here on earth, that lived a life and example for him. “ I knew Emily through the musicals we performed together when she was in High School. She was a beautiful, bright and intelligent student who could follow any direction she was given. She was always there to help the others who didn't have that specialty quality of serenity which manifested itself in calmness. And that calmness created a peace on which we could always rely. She literally lit up any space she was in and that light warmed everyone's heart and soul. I know she will be missed in the most tragic way for this is a true tragedy for mankind that she was taken away. But oh how bright heaven now shines with her glorious soul.
God love you Emily and I pray for God's special peace to engulf all family members and friends.
Thank you Emily for all you gave us.

“ To Emily's Family,

I am still shocked about Emily. I started going to SHSU in August and started going to Second Baptist in October where Emily was my college group leader. What a leader! She did not ever make me feel strange or "new" in the class, and she is just one of the nicest persons I have ever met in my life. God knew what he was doing when he took her so early in life. Heaven wanted the most cheerful and kind angel- and Emily was the only person who could take that spot. Please know that I am praying for you and close friends.

“ Beth, John, and family, I know that this is the hardest event that you have ever had to face. Through prayer, God will carry you through this. On Emily's website she said that she didn't know where she would be six months from now but that she didn't care because it would be where God wanted her. Then when asked who she would like to meet she mentioned that anyone worth seeing would be in heaven. I know we won't ever understand but God has a good and perfect will in all of this. My prayer is that God will use this tragedy for others to come to know Christ. I have known Emily for about 12 years. She was a wonderful Christian friend and I will always cherish the numerous memories from church, school, and get-togethers that I have of her. Not only was she loved by everyone but she showed love to everyone around her. She will always be missed.

“ To say that I am saddened by this event would be an enormous understatement. There simply is not adequate space for me to express the numerous gifts that Emily bestowed upon me during the past four years. In fact, I will feel indebted to her for the remainder of my life.

Though I knew Emily in high school, I am ashamed to say that I never took the opportunity to get to know her the way I did throughout my time in college and graduate school.

There were numerous occasions in which Emily expressed her appreciation toward me for my friendship to her during the past few years. However, the truth is that the privilege was entirely mine. In fact, I admired, respected, and looked up to her a great deal more than anyone I have ever encountered in my life and my heart is broken by this tragedy as well as my own negligence in terms of failing to inform her of how special she was to me.

In conclusion, I would like to say that Emily was a truly unique and very special person. In fact, she was the kind of person that an individual only encounters once in a lifetime. I am truly very sorry for your tremendous loss.

“ Emily was such a wonderful person. I became friends with her through Drama. She was truly a wonderful girl. I remember a time when I had no one to talk to because I was hurting, during our musical and she put her arm around me and just let me cry. That left a lasting impression on me. She was an example that I looked to for many things. I will always remember that kind smile and her warm words, and thank God for allowing me to know such a precious person.

“ Beth and family, It is so saddening to think of Emily not here. When I heard the news I instantly thought back to the time she was just a little girl as I got to know you and the family. And of the time at GA camp. She had the sweetest aura about her and her smile seemed to lift everyone's spirit. She touched so many lives throughout her short life. As it hurts not having her with us here, it should also be a comfort and joy to know she is with our LORD smiling down on all of us. I cannot imagine the pain you must be going through at this time. My heart aches for you. You will be in my continued thoughts and prayers. Know that you are loved. Tell Justin and John, jr. to be so careful that our lives are so precious and short. “ This is, undoubtedly, one of the most difficult messages I have ever written in my life. Emily was one of most precious students that I have ever known. She was delightful, responsible, energetic, loving, kind, respectful, and on, and on, and on, until an entire book could be filled with positive attributes. She was special to me and to everyone who knew her. She always lighted up a room when she walked in, just as she is now lighting the heavens. God gave Emily to so many of us to lift our lives and now he has lifted her to share the glory of his kingdom. How wonderful it must be to walk the streets of gold with Jesus. I am certain, with all my heart, that she is doing just that. I know that one day she will greet us again, with that beautiful smile. I grieve because I loved her. I grieve because I love her family. I grieve because I am selfish and want her back. I grieve because I know that she wants to stay. Look to the Lord with adoration for saving her beautiful soul. Pray to the Lord that He will, indeed, save us, too.

“ To the Family:

John and Justin, I've already expressed to you how sorry I am for the loss of Emily, she was someone I grew up with and she will be so so sorely missed. I know how hard it is for the two of you and especially for your parents. I know that you know Emily is extremely happy, in Heaven where she knew she would be eventually. I will be there for you guys in any way that I can, and want you to know I love you!

“ Dear Beth and family--our love and prayers are with you at this most difficult time of your lives. We remember Emily's beauty and energy as she explored Cape Cod and Massachusetts, and surely a little spark of her will always remain with us in the warm sand. God Bless.

“ Dear Beth, John, John Jr., and Justin: I was so sorry to hear of your loss. Emily was a loving and giving little girl and even more so as young woman. Words cannot appropriately express the sympathy and heartache I feel for each of you. I have many loving, funny and precious memories of the times our families spent together and of the many evenings John Jr., Justin and Emily would babysit Stephen so us "adults" could go to eat or to a movie. We had many wonderful times together and my heart goes out to you - I truly hurt for each of you. Know that I am in constant prayer for you and asking that God gives you the strength you need and the peace only our Lord can provide. I also pray that the knowledge she is in her Heavenly home, praising God and rejoicing in His presence will give you some sort of comfort in this difficult time. I love you all very much and will see you Monday night at visitation. God bless.

“ John, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your precious daughter. I never had the pleasure of meeting her but I can tell by reading the other condolences she was truly an angel from Heaven. My heart breaks for you as you try to understand why things happen the way they do. She is being caressed by the Lord and he will guide your family through this difficult time. I will continue to pray for you and your family.

“ To the Mullin Family: I am sorry to hear about your lost. Emily was a wonderful person. I am so glad I got a chance to know her. I have so many great memories from band, flags, and outside of school. She always knew how to put a smile on a person's face. Emily was a thoughtful individual and willing to help anyone out. I know she is watching over everyone. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

I can't begin to imagine what you are going through as you travel this unplanned path before you, but my heart and prayers go out to you that God will give you each strength to face one day at a time. Life doesn't seem fair, but I hope some day soon you'll enjoy the memories of the joy she has brought to your life. My memories of her and my time with you brings me comfort. “ Our deepest thoughts and prayers are with you as you say your temporary "Good-bye" to your precious Emily. Our son, Darryl, left us in 2000 to live with his heavenly father. The pain is sometimes unbearable. Keep looking to our father to answer your questions and comfort you. Find a support group. It would be best not to make any major decisions for about a year. There is a fog that you are in and will be in for awhile. Let that settle. Try not to do too much... Please feel free to call me 713 455-7878

“ John, Beth, Justin, & John jr.,

Jessica and I can't even to begin to express how much we loved Emily. She had such and impact on both of our lives and I will never forget the memories of her. Jessica always called her "my Emmy" and wanted to be just like her. She was a role model for all. I don't know why things happen, but I know God has a plan and will work this for his good. I have no doubt that Emily is in Heaven looking down on all of us. We will see you tomorrow. You are in our thoughts and our prayers. We love you. Tammy & Jessica “ Beth and John you will never know the way I truly felt about your daughter. She was like my own child and the pain you must be going through must be unbelievable. God has a reason for all things and it is not ours to question, so I know we will see Emily in heaven. I can't say enough about her kind, warm smile, open heart that was always a joy to see. Emily was like my extended daughter, I will miss her, pray for your family and say thanks for her being in our lives.

“ To Beth, John, Justin and John.....

I just want to say how much Emily meant to me....She was such a true and loyal friend to me for 17 years. I have so many wonderful memories that I will forever cherish. I know this must be the hardest thing for any of you to go through. Just know that there are many people praying for you and I know Emily is watching over all of us. I remember how much fun it was to come over to yalls house and stay the night...Me and Cristi had so much fun with her and even into our adulthood, we still kinda acted like silly kids when we saw each other...I will never forget her laugh...She had a distinct laugh:-) We are all here for your family and I will continue to pray for yall...yall were always like family to me...With all my love, Carla...

“ Dear Beth, John, John Jr. and Justin.
Our hearts go out to you dear ones. We don't always understand why God allows tragedies such as this in our lives. Death can take our physical bodies but it can never take away the precious memories. Emily was so precious and she will be truly missed. We remember all the wonderful times we had together. You haven't lost Emily, for you know exactly where she is, she is with our Heavenly Father and we will soon be with her again.

“ Dear Beth, John, John Jr. and Justin:
What a blessing it has been to have known and had Emily in our lives. She had the sweetest smile and most precious soul and I know that you are so proud of that. It is such a comfort in knowing that she is with her Lord that she loved so deeply. She followed his footsteps wherever he lead her and now she is where he needs her to be. I know, Beth, as a mother the pain you must have. My heart is breaking for you and all of your family, I can feel your pain. I love you all very much and have you in my constant thoughts and prayers.
