“ I have many warm memories of Aunt Emily. She made a whole wardrobe for my doll when I was 6. She gave me a fried egg for breakfast when we spent the night prior to a crabbing expedition. I ate it and was suprised to find I liked it. She taught me to knit. She had us over for so many Christmas dinners. She shared many Thanksgiving dinners with us and always brought something delicious. She had a wonderful smile. She enriched my life and I miss her. Love Lynda
