“ Sue,

I wanted to send my deepest condolences to you and your family. I have wanted to come by and see you, but I have found it too painful and close to home to come by. Jeremy has taken this very hard and cannot even speak about it. Eric will be missed greatly in Jeremy's life and ours. He has been a part of our family as well since he and Jeremy grew up together. I am so sorry for your loss and if there is anything I can do for you, please don't hesitate to reach out. I cannot imagine what you must be going through and you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Sue, my prayers and thoughts are with you. You and Dani have suffered much pain in the last six years and I hope you will somehow find peace. You are a remarkable person and raised remarkable children. I always enjoyed talking with you about Eric: showing goats, his first truck, dip at school, fourwheelers and his trip to Australia. He was an impressive young man. I am truly sorry for your loss. sc

“ My heart is breaking for you at this sad time. I had the priviledge of teaching Eric in kindergarten. (He broke his arm on the playground that year.) He was a precious little boy that I remember very well. My family and I are praying for your strength. Love, Candy Whitehead

“ Sue, I am saddened to hear about Eric. Dustin and I have been emotionally devastated. He thought the world of Eric, and they would do anything for each other. Eric always had a big smile and a warm heart. Eric's tragic accident has made a impact on alot of Eric's friends. Here is a poem that Eric's friends and yourself may find comforting.

We little knew that morning that God would call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone, for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us with our memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Dear family,
Though you probably have never heard of me or many of Eric's friends for that matter, I just wanted you to know that your son has had a profound impact on my life. It is such a hard thing to go through, losing someone close (I've lost 5 people in the past 2 years), and I think everytime it happens it only wakes us up inside and shows us how truly special life really is. We're only on this earth for a short period of time, and whether we believe it or not, we are all here for a reason. I can't remember a time where I didnt see Eric with a smile on his face, and knowing this, im sure he carried it with him all the way to heaven. God Bless, and thank you for sharing your wonderful son with all of us.

“ Ms. Sue & Danielle,

Words cannot express my sadness for you all. I remember Eric as a little kid at Girl Scouts. Sweet, little blonde headed kid. My brother said he turned out to be a good kid, and I'm sure of it. I just wanted to express my condolences and sympathy for you all and the rest of your family. Y'all are in my prayers!

Take care,

Caci Kelley (Cacicio)

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Your family is in my prayers. My son, David, and Eric were lab partners at Wyotech. My son is considered the "youngin" at school since he's only 17. I allowed David to ride dirtbikes with Eric at Pax Trax a few times. I had the privilege of meeting Eric. He was very polite and I liked him immediately. I trusted him to keep an eye on David while riding. David is really taking Eric's passing pretty hard. Just know that your family is in our hearts and prayers. God Bless you all.
