“ To Gene, Victoria and all the family. Even though I did not have the pleasure of knowing your mother & grandmother well, I will always remember her as a sweet and gentle presence; very much like her wonderful children and grandchildren, Victoria, Daniel, Laura and Ana. My parents, Genaro and a Nellie Soto, always spoke of her fondly. It is wonderful to think of them having a joyous reunion in heaven.

“ I am grateful for the short time I had with her and for her patience. One of the last things Grandma said to me was that she was going to stop explaining who I was, "You're my granddaughter!" And so I am. You are loved and missed, Grandma.

“ Condolences to each member of the family. We will keep each of you in our prayers and thoughts as you mourn the loss of your beloved Ethel. Victoria, we know she lives on in more ways than one because we can see the gifts that she handed down through you, in the arts and crafts, to her grand kids Daniel, Laura and Ana.

“ Beautiful obit. Ethel and Eugene were my brother, Gene's in-laws, and through the years they developed a friendship with our parents, Genaro and Nellie Soto. The two couples visited each other either in San Angelo or in the Houston area. Ethel was always kind, thoughtful and gracious toward mom, sending cards and letters, which our mom truly appreciated. Heaven has another angel to watch over our families. Deepest sympathy to Ethel's loved ones.
