

Eula Faye Durdin

March 23, 1937 - November 10, 2019

Eula Faye Durdin died earlier this morning in Huntsville, Texas. Born in a little cabin in Oakhurst, Texas, she never married and had no children. Those who knew her will remember her childlike sweetness and incredible thoughtfulness. Many thanks to the people at Parkview Place and Northside Baptist Church who helped make her life full and special.

“ I used to paint her nails when I went to visit my mother who was doing rehab at the old Ella Smither. She was such a joy to be near. Always smiling and blessed. I will see you soon, sweet friend. <3

“ Eula Faye was a special person. I have never known a happier lady, taking pride in many of her small possessions that she acquired. She had such a lovely spirit that made you wish you could feel as blessed. She will be missed by all that had the pleasure of knowing her!

“ Rest In Peace sweet Miss Eula. I had the pleasure of getting to know you several years ago when a friend moved to the Parkview Apartments. Being there often I got to visit with you regularly in the lobby while you waited to get your mail and I always got a hug. I soon learned we went to the same church and after, we made a point to visit and hug there as well. When you went to the Nursing Home you ended up sharing a room with my friend and I know she would have been so pleased to know that. The last time you were able to talk with me there you said “Give me a hug” and of course I did. I will miss those hugs.
