“ *Dear Jennifer,
We were so sorry to hear about E. W.'s death even though we had known him only briefly. Each of you were a blessing to the other, but he was especially blessed to have you there to care for him during his illness. He loved you so much. Please let us know if we can do anything to help at this sad time. You are in our thoughts and prayers. I am sorry that we could not make it to the services.*

“ We want you to know that our thoughts and prayers are with you (Aunt Jennifer) and family during this trying time in your life. E.W. was a true blessing to all of us and we are so thankful that God led him to our family. Not only for us but most importantly for you! He always had a smile on his face and made us feel welcome! And though it is hard to say good-bye I hope you have some comfort in knowing that it is only temporary and you will definitely be together again in an even more beautiful place! He will be right there with that same welcoming smile to let you in. I pray that God will send you strength and some peace of mind knowing he is now your sweet guardian angel watching over you. We love you all! so sorry that we couldn't make the services all 3 of the kids (and Ted) are sick, but please know that we are thinking of you. Love Shannon

“ We will truly miss E.W. He was an awesome Brother in law, He cared for us and he loved his family and his wife. Jennifer, You were so blessed. Friends were important to him and he would have given you his last crust of bread. We all leaned on him. He was always ready to help. He even loved game night, 6 to 8 ladies talking about everything and giggling. He was a gift from god. He has a place in our hearts and will always be with us.
E.W. was an Awesome gift.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. EW was a special man. I really enjoyed getting to know him. He had such a broad knowledge you could sit and chat about anything and he had something to add. He was kind and generous and he will be missed by many.

It just tears me up to be so far away. I feel like I should be baking and cooking and doing any little thing that I can to help.

You are in my thoughts and prayers.
