“ Aunt Faye, she was a true blessing. I feel honored to have had her, even for the short time that I did. She was always the perfect lady with such good biblical knowledge and support. I love her and can't wait to hug her in heaven!!!

“ I was born in Houston and lived next door to my FayeFaye and Uncle Bill for the first 6 years of my life. My mom said she had to share whether she wanted to or not. We went to the same church and upon my graduation from the nursery at 3 years old, I got to go in the big church with Mom and Dad. Only, I spotted my FayeFaye up at the piano and started yelling FayeFaye, FayeFaye and they had to let me go...where I spent the majority of my Sunday and Wednesday services for the next 3 years on the piano bench next to her. I got really sick and had to have major surgery and along with my momma I had to have FayeFaye there, too. When I couldn't tell them what I wanted, just circle my finger around, they knew I wanted them to wind up the little radio FayeFaye had brought me. I was there when they brought home my very own baby doll, Perry James and I was there when they brought home my second baby doll, Jerry Robert. I learned to sing but I never got the piano down, but I could listen to her play for hours and sing with her. Songs from Jesus loves me to This little light of mine and then I'm a lonely little petunia and Purple people eater, Yellow bird was one of my favorites. I am so thankful that the Lord chose her to be my aunt to help mold and make me into who I am today. I know she was special to a great many people, but she was super special to me.

“ Ms Faye was the glow in church with her beautiful music and loving heart. She poured out her love of Jesus with every move she made and every song she sung. She had the voice of a angel and when I need lifting up I pop her CD in my radio. Fly high Ms Faye you will be missed here on earth but is sitting at Jesus feet with those that have already flown away. See you when I get there.

*My mother gave me an adoption creed plaque many years ago. The wording.
Not flesh or my flesh or bone of my bone, but still miraculously my own.
Never forget for a single minute, you didn't grow under my heart but in it.
Thank you all for love. Thank you mamma for the life you gave me. I will see you again and raid the fridge in our heavenly home.*

“ I became acquainted with Faye back in the late 90's when I met one of her family members here in California who had hit hard times. He would come to my home to call her. Through the years we became good friends and enjoyed talking with one another. I know the day that she took her last breath here, she took her very next one in the Presence of the Savior she loved and served. While we know this to be true it is still difficult to say goodbye. My condolences to her children and extended family members.

“ Dear All,
Who am I to sum up my years of friendship with Faye. She was a friend to all. A witness for God. A strong Christian. She was and always will be my BEST FRIEND. She shared her knowledge, her wisdom and herself with all. But, most of all, she shared Jesus Christ! A simple but complex woman. A heart of gold. A heart of passion for all, sharing all she had. We, Faye, Ann and myself were a riotous threesome. We loved “cutting up” and laughing heartily. We loved laying out under the stars watching for each satellite orbiting the earth. Staying to sing while she played the piano. Teaching our kids to enjoy what we enjoyed. Taking long walks down the dirt road and telling scary thoughts while passing the cemetery. There were no dull moments with Faye. We shared our sorrows, our problems, our happiness and our struggles strictly within our confines.
Faye, we will miss you!! But not for long. You have earned your many crowns. Goodbye for now...

“ Faye was such a dear lady. She and I were friends at the Joy of Living Bible study ... She played the piano as I led the music. We have lost touch over the years but she has nevertheless had a special place in my heart. She was a genius with the piano and she shared her talent so graciously..

“ Aunt Faye was a ray of sunshine on a cold rainy day. She was always smiling and had a song in her heart. She loved flowers, birds (especially humming birds).

Her family considered her to be the bright shining light in each of their lives. I have never known her to say a bad thing about anyone, only asking everyone to pray for them.

I know several that went home before her is gathered around that grand piano with her playing by ear any song requested.

Aunt Faye, you have been a beacon in my Christian life and I owe you for planting that seed so very many years ago. I love you so much and will miss you. Save a spot for me

She was known as Aunt Faye to everone that met her.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Faye’s passing. Our entire family loved her dearly. Even though she was not actually kin, we all called her “Aunt” Faye. She is one of the best Christians we have ever known. She “walked the walk” & “talked the talk”. I don’t know anyone that didn’t love her. She was such a precious woman. We loved to hear her play the piano and also sing. Faye and I shared our January birthdays which were two days apart. There’s no doubt in my mind that Faye is in Heaven making beautiful music.
