and has no one to help them up. Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm. But how can one keep warm alone? Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves. A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.”

“ Flo was a very special lady in my life and in the lives of my family. I know that there must have been times in her life that was hard on her being the wife of a preacher, but you would have NEVER known it! Flo carried herself with grace, kindness and love. She was a lady in ever sense of the word and she loved her family with heart & soul.

She has gained her angle-wings and they are much deserved. We lost an amazing woman, but heaven gained one ❤️🙏😊
