“Floyd Darling was my housemate and bandmate in college and we became lifelong close friends. We remained in touch through the years and visited each other when we could do so. The photos I'm including were taken when Floyd visited me in New York City in the early 80's. I'm so glad I made the trip to south Texas several years ago to see Floyd and Diane and meet Sarah for the first time. During the pandemic Floyd and I became even closer, with frequent calls spent recalling the antics of our college days and catching up on news of common friends. Floyd Darling helped and supported me during a very trying time in Texas in the 70's and we helped each other during this pandemic, which has so disrupted all of our lives. I miss him dearly and will do so always! My heart goes out to Sarah, my dear friend Wayne, the entire extended Darling family and to the many friends of this wonderful person!!
