“ My condolences to Ms. Francis' family. Ms. Francis was one of our table mates at Creekside, she sat next to me and I am glad I was able to know her. We would tease her about her being so quiet. I have missed her when she was unable to come eat with us. I will miss her. Please take solace in knowing she is with her heavenly father and those that have gone before her. She is at peace and no longer in pain.

“ *John, Twyla,
We were so sorry to learn of your mom's passing. Your mom and dad were good friends and we always enjoyed the times spent with them. Sorry we will not be able to attend her funeral. May God bless you both and your families.*

“ My condolences to the Fulton families. I'm sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. Some Bible scriptures that have helped me during times of loss include Isaiah 26:19 and Psalms 37:28,29 which state in part "Your dead ones will rise...They will live." And the Bible also says "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will forever live upon it." Therefore the Bible promises that we may be reunited with our loved ones lost in death by means of an earthly resurrection. This is further confirmed by John 5:28,29 which says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. This is possible thanks to Jesus Christ's ransom sacrifice. Thus we have a genuine hope everlasting life in a world without wickedness or suffering. I hope these scriptures will be of some comfort to you. For more encouraging thoughts on this subject, please visit www.jw.org
