“ I will miss seeing Mrs. Malak's face and hearing her voice and seeing her big ol truck at church when I come home to visit my parents. She always had a sweet smile on her face and a positive disposition. She was a good friend to my parents and I am grateful to her for that. For her family, may God hold you close and comfort you in your time of sadness. She knows no more pain and only the joy that we all hope to have one day in heaven.

“ So many childhood memories. So bittersweet. We lose her here, but we know she is joining our other loved ones in heaven. They must be having one big party in heaven right now. Mama and her godmother reunited again. Our prayers are with the family right now.

“ Oh, How I will miss that beautiful face, and smile. Always such a positive spirit and as kids she always gaves the love we needed and the firm hand that we needed more most of the time. Aunt Francis you will be dearly missed, but I know that you are in a better place tell all our loved ones hello in heaven!

“ It's so hard to say goodbye.....when you think of those people who have always been & will be in your life, she is one....I never thought we would be without her. As I stood there Sunday to say goodbye I realized how much of my childhood was spent in that house. Watching her bake cakes for weddings, arranging flowers.....always so much lace and details in everything she did. The Aunt I didn't have and the Sister my mother needed. She made our world a beautiful place just by being there... I know she is happy to be reunited with the love of her life, and for that I am grateful...but I will always miss that heartfelt laugh and the twinkle in her eye.
