“ Donna, Joey, Philip and Frankie,

We had lots of fun times with your dad over the years. We will miss him. We still use one of his phrases. At a truck show in Houston, four of us toured the floor, and we were pausing longer than Frank wanted to look, and he shooed us toward the exit that day saying, "And . . . moving right along."

We went out to dinner afterwards and had a fun evening. Now, when Dave or I want the other to hurry up a bit, we've adopted his phrase.

*We hold your family in our hearts with prayers for your comfort.

“ Donna and Lindzey, My prayers are with you and I know the hurt you are going thru, the void that is in your hearts.. May God wrap his arms around you and comfort you.. You know Frank is reunited with his brothers that have gone on before. He feels no pain now. My thoughts are with you and Phillip, Joey, and Frankie.. Much love to all of you...
