

Frank W. Shawaker

December 11, 1922 - September 25, 2010

Frank W. Shawaker Frank W. Shawaker, 87, passed away on September 21, 2010. Frank was born on December 11, 1922, to W.W. and Florence Eckert Shawaker in Portage, Ohio. He is preceded in death by his parents, and his sisters Fern Shawaker and Freda Armstrong. Frank is survived by his brothers, Karl and Ross Shawaker, his wife Eunice Ann Rayburn Shawaker, his son Kevin Shawaker, daughters Brenda Shawaker and Terri Shawaker Motley; grandchildren Kristin Shawaker Zornes, Matthew Blaine Shawaker, and Bryce Motley, and his wife's son Gary Rayburn and grandson Casey Rayburn. Frank was a veteran and served as a Corporal in the U.S. Army during WWII. He never lost his passion or appreciation, for the freedom and liberties enjoyed today due to the service and sacrifice of our military men and women. Frank was an amazing person; he believed that taking chances lead to success, and quitting was not an option. He was devoted to his wife and best friend, Eunice Ann, and he was a loving, caring father and grandfather that will be forever missed. A memorial service for Frank will be held Saturday, September 25, 2010, 2:00 p.m., at First United Methodist Church in Huntsville, Texas with Rev. Mark Pickett officiating. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to The Texas Heart Institute, Development Office, MC 3-117, PO Box 20345, Houston, TX 77225-0345. “ Ann, it breaks my heart that Frank is no longer with us. I could see the love the two of you had for each other, by the way the took care of you. I know that he will be deeply missed and that your heart must be broken, but remember that he will always be with you.
