“ Dear Dorothy & Family,
This is your cousin Karen from Houston. So sorry to hear of your loss. We didn't know you as a couple, but it sounds like Fred was a wonderful man, husband, father and grandfather. I noticed he was born on the 4th of July...so was my sister Connie. And you two were married in 1972 like Tom and I. Those 46 years went by so quickly! We are thinking about you and sending prayers for you and the family.
Love,
Karen Rhea Taylor

“ Although I never spent a lot of time with Freddy, his life influenced me. All of your lives have. He was a kind and gentle man who had a firm grip on what was real. He loved you all and was satisfied with his life. Dot, I love you and pray for the for you and your family. Amy and April, God blessed you with a wonderful father.

“ *Dear Dorothy and family,
I was so sad and shocked to learn of Fred's death. I feel like I had known him forever!
Good and kind are words that describe him so well.
Life is too short. Cherish the memories and go on to make new ones as he would want you to do.
We are out of state, so I will miss the services, but you will be in my thoughts and prayers.*
