“ Many times in the NFL the forgotten heroes are all those good people behind the scenes making it possible for the players to do what they need to do on the field and that is how I feel about Fred. He always had a smile on his face and an encouraging word sharing his talents with the Houston Oilers family in so many different ways. Rest in Peace my dear friend and to the rest of the Taylor family, please know you will be in our prayers as we all salute the earthly existence of a great man!

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the Taylor family. Fred was a dear friend during my years as the athletic trainer for the Houston Oilers. I will never forget our Saturday mornings when he and Rocky Brooks would bring over their SOS for breakfast for the staff and team. It was individuals like Fred going out of their way to be a part of our Oiler team that made this time so special. He truly was a good man and will be missed. Jerry Meins - Luv Ya Blue trainer.
