“ *Dear Cooper Family,
My prayers are with you all during this difficult feeling of loss. I did not personally know your dear Pawpaw, but I do know (very well) of a son and two granddaughters that he impacted in such a wonderful way. His guidance and love is what made Fred the man, husband and father that he is... a second daddy to me! Pawpaw was the one who took Bethany and guided her through college when she was away from all of us, in Smithville :) and made sure she continued to grow into the beautiful daughter, sister, mom and dearest friend she is to so very many people! For these things I thank this treasured man of yours and know as he watches you all, from the glory of heaven, will continue to influence and remain as a memory to all of you! May God bless you and remain with you as your healing process begins.*

“ To all the family: Not living in the area now for decades the call from Fred regarding his daddy brought so many memories rushing forward. The hour or so conversation was really a tribute to man who was unmeasureably admired and loved by his family. So many wonderful things are commonly known about Ed and most certainly they'll all be recounted in the coming days and years and never forgotten. I was lucky to have spent many hours/days in the Cooper household eating gumbo and God knows what else. Monica kept saying it was duck, but I'm not so sure? But to sum it up, for Ed it was God and Family (fishing a close 3rd) that made him the guiding patriarch for all generations of a wonderful family. Love to all. Don & Sandy Mudd

“ Dear Monica, Linda and I send our sincerest sympathy to you and your family. Although we never met your children and extended family I know that you have a wonderful family that will support each other during this sad time. Ed truly was a good man and I know you will miss him very much. Love, Linda and Aaron

“ Dear Monica,
We are so sorry. You and Ed were such wonderful neighbors. We can still smell the crappie frying and steaks grilling.
With love,

“ The faithful know who know Mr. Cooper and believe in eternal life, know where he is heading on his next journey in life. We pray that the faith which has carried the entire Cooper family to this point will continue to carry you all through this emotional and spiritual time, and help fill the void left from his passing. You know he will be up there with some of the most famous fishermen of all time!!!! Maybe he can teach them a thing or 2 about Crappie fishing, eh?!?

My favorite Ed memory is him showing me how to crappie fish in the Cajun boat, trolling with the big motor and using a jig...we tore 'em up that day!!

God bless and keep you all,
