

Frieda Edith Lewis

September 11, 1914 - November 23, 2010

“Arise, shine for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.” Isaiah 60:1 Born September 11, 1914 to the late Tom and Effie Scott, Frieda Edith was raised and educated in Edwardsville where she was a graduate of Lincoln High School. On June 25, 1931, Frieda was united in marriage to the late George Dewey Lewis. To this union six children were born: George Thomas, Fritzie Ann Devon, Lawrence Cecil, Elsie Gladys, Oliver Olin and Arnold Leon Lewis. Frieda accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at a young age and was a devoted servant of God. She was an active member of Wesley A.M.E. Chapel for more than 50 years where she faithfully served on the Mission and as a Stewardess. As her family matriarch, she had a tremendous influence on the lives that she touched as she was deeply loved, valued and appreciated by all. She is preceded in death by her parents (Tom & Effie Scott), husband (George Dewey Lewis), brothers (Tommy, Clarence, Arnold, Roscoe & Oliver), sisters (Georgia & Katy), sons (George, Lawrence & Oliver), daughter (Fritzie), grandson (Phillip Lewis), granddaughters (Laura Johnson Burse & Leslie Johnson) and great-grandson (Jeffrey Davis).
