“ Laurie and Ricky,

I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your son. I know that there are no words that I can say that will give you much comfort, but take comfort in the fact that you have so many friends and family that are there for you. I know I have with the recent losses in my family. I've only met him a few times, when he was a kid and when he was older. He seemed to be a sweetheart of a guy and had a good heart. From reading the tributes above, I know that he touched many lives.

Laurie, I'll always treasure the memories I've have hanging out with the Fowler family during high school. A big noisy family, just like mine. My heart goes out to you.

Love, Chris

“ To the family of Gabe Tullos:
No words have I to help you at this time with your terrible loss. But I know exactly how you are feeling right now, having lost my eldest son, Dennis, almost a year ago when he was only 36 years of age, also very suddenly and without just cause. I can only say to you that you must allow yourself all the time you feel necessary to grieve and openly speak of this to any and all those who wish to help you through this terrible time by listening to you, holding your hands and helping you to understand that none of this was your fault, there was nothing you could do to help it and his time on earth was all that was allotted to him by our Lord God. I spent 3 days at the Betty Ford Center in California learning about grief and death and living again after all of this type of tragedy. Take your time but, please do not rely on pills to ease your grief - they will only compound the already terrible situation. What you need now is time and your loved ones around you for support. Do nothing you don't feel like but remember this: he is still here among us even if you cannot see him and his love for you will never diminish.
The moving hand of fate writes and, having written, moves on.
Strong Arms are around you and, in Sigma Chi, this creed will help you:
In Hoc Signo Vincas! All honor to his name!

“ I will hold deeply in my heart the last time that Gabe and I were together. I had taken him home from eating Mexican food in Willis several months ago. We sat in his driveway for hours with him talking about all his plans in the future. He was happy, excited but not so concerned with himself that he did not say before I drove off, "I love you Aunt Libby and if you ever need me just call." I just realized this past week how much I needed him! Gabe, you are forever in our hearts!" "To live in hearts you've left behind is to never die." Aunt Libby

“ I was sorry to here of your loss. Gabe was one of the finest young men I have had the prililage of coaching in my twenty-two years. Gabe was a young man who never backed down from a task, and was one of the hardest working young men I have ever coached. My thoughts and prayers are with you in this difficult time.

“ My prayers go out to Gabe's family and friends! I am so sorry for your loss! My time spent with Gabe at WHS and later in the community was a real blessing to me. God blessed us together as we reflected on the good and bad times at WHS and I was amazed each time I saw the love and appreciation in Gabe's eyes. Gabe shared his love and appreciation as we stood on the Wildkat sidelines watching the smoke rise from the famous smoke machine. I could tell that Gabe loved being part of the Wildkats once again. Gabe had a gentle spirit and was a wonderful friend. He was always appreciative of the people in his life and wasn't afraid to show it. My son Jeremy and my entire family send our condolences. God bless and support his Mom, Jason, and all of his family and Wildkat friends. I am out of town but will be there in spirit. Mr. Cooper WHS

“ It was truly an honor to have been friends with Gabe! Few men walk this earth with the genuine passion for people that Gabe possessed. His willingness to do for others remains unmatched. Anyone that had the please knowing Gabe was blessed by his friendship. For me, Gabe's memory will be filled with admiration and gratitude. Gabe, "you fought the good fight, you've finished your work, many people have gained new luster by your life. I bid you God speed my brother."
