“ I haven't known Gary but a few years and did not get the chance to spend as much time with him as I wished, but the times we were together was a real Blessing for me. Gary was the kind of person that you instantly liked. Every time that we were together, Gary spoke about many of his adventures, which I loved hearing. But always, Gary spoke about The Lord and how good God was to him and his family.

It absolutely broke my heart when I heard of Gary's passing, I'm still in shock. I will always appreciate and remember our times together. Gary's wife and family can take comfort in knowing how Blessed they are to have had Gary in their lives!

God Bless you Kim and Sons.
