“ Dear Mrs. Thomas, Jim, and Julie, It was so good to see all you the other day even if it was under such sad circumstances. How time flies! I had only seen Gary a few times since graduation, and I still think of him as Jim's sweet little brother. Now he is gone so suddenly! May memories of the good times help all of you as you grieve. God bless you,

“ I am truly sorry about your loss. Gary and I were very close in college and still tried to keep in touch these last several years. I returned home, Sunday and read about his death. Please accept my deepest sorrow and prayers for you and yours. I am unable to attend the services as I have a meeting regarding my own mother's passing that has been scheduled for some time. He was a wonderful friend and companion. Again my thoughts and prayers are with you. Mike
