“ There is no more ridiculous custom than the one that makes you express sympathy once for all on a given day to a persons whose sorrow will endure as long as his life. Such grief felt in such a way is always present, it is never too late to talk about it, never repetitious to mention it again. (Proust) George Robert Nevins

“ My sincere condolences to the Nevins family. While working for George, my father, "Big Dave" had I believe the most success and fun of his working career. His pride working for George was contagious!! You could see this in Georges' entire organization, as all that worked for George were just as proud!

When my father fell ill, George was the first to step up and help me and my family as if we were his family. Yes, he was a very generous man, but more importantly, he was caring and thoughtful and it shows as he made a difference in so many lives. I , as many others were very fortunate to have known him....

*Sincerely,
"Little Dave" Montgomery*

“ My sincere condolences to Shirley, the Nevins family, and all who where lucky enough to have known George. I am deeply saddened by your loss. I was so very fortunate to have met George in the mid 80's. Fresh out of college, and new to the construction equipment industry, meeting George, and the privilege of working under his tutelage was certainly a godsend. Such a fair, honest, and Extremely generous man. He will be forever missed and remembered. And I, forever grateful to have known him.

“ I was privileged to have been a friend, mentor, and partner of George since the late 70's. He took me under his wing ,as he did for many, and help guide me along life's path. His strong moral principles and commitment to family were ever present and the twinkle in his eyes for all he cared for. A toast martini to great memories of a great man, may the family know he has left this world a better place

“ Sending my deepest sympathies to you cousin Shirley for the loss of your beloved George. My memories are many. Our mothers were sisters so we started years back with big family dinners on the farms. All of us cousins running around and playing games. Then after high school we were roommates at our grandparents in Cedar Rapids where we had jobs. It wasn't long and Shirley met George and we had our weddings and six kids. No matter where our lives took us and miles in between we always managed to stay in touch. George was always very generous with his good life even sharing his cabin with our family. Now, Rest In Peace George knowing your life was well lived and you were loved by many. Shalom, Mary Kaliban and family
