“ With sadness in my heart I am leaving my condolence for Mrs. Reed and Dorothy Kelly. I learned of Georgia's passing just today. My friendship with Georgia dates back to 1987 when we worked together at Dr. Monday's office. She was the sweetest, most thoughtful, kind and caring person I have had the pleasure knowing. Our love for animals formed an instant bond. Georgia gave me my first journal before I left on my trip to Germany in 1989. I have been journaling ever since. As I was leafing through the many cards, notes and letters I received from Georgia over the years, one particular caught my eye. It says: Good people will be remembered as a blessing... Proverbs 10:7. Yes, Georgia was a definite blessing in my life. She will be missed so very much.

“ Although I became acquainted with Georgia before Jack died, I did not become friends with her until after his death. We made several trips to Houston for doctor appointments and would always eat lunch at the little bakery/sandwich shop she and Jack loved to go to afterwards. We discovered we shared the same birthday and she was born the year my parents married. I shared my butterfly stories about how they comfort me now that Mom is gone. She gave me the two mounted butterfly displays because she knew I would appreciate them. She talked about wanting to eat at the Homestead like she did with Jack so many times. She asked me to come spend the night with her a few weeks ago and pick up the meal from the Homestead. We enjoyed the meal and talked about Jack. I would love to have been able to take Sally and Bobbie, but my home has enough kitties. I so hope they are adopted in their neighborhood where they are familiar with their territory. We enjoyed our visits and I wish I had been able to spend more time with her toward the end, but my circumstances did not allow. I treasure the time we shared, her thoughtfulness with cards and momentos. I suppose the most incredible coincidence in our lives is that she and Mom died after midnight on May 21st. I believe that God purposely put us together and I was so blessed to have her as a friend.

“ I love you, my dear friend. You taught me that patience is truly rewarded; you taught me that persistence pays off; you taught me the value of a strong will; most of all, you taught me wisdom.

“ It was truly an honor to care for Georgia on her journey to heaven. It was evident that she was a true lady in every sense of the word. Our thoughts and prayers are with the friends and family. Alana and Millie are to be commended for all they did and the sacrifices they made for Georgia's wishes to be completed. You are amazing FRIENDS and Georgia was blessed to have you.
Sincerely, Tami Dees, RN PCC THEE Hospice

“ Georgia was my fairy godmother. I am 36 years old now and when I was a little girl my cousins used to 'brag' about having God parents, and I did not have God parents. Georgia told me she would be my FAIRY godmother. I was content with that. My mother is her dear friend, Avis Ann Blain. With much love, Georgia, now you truly DO have 'fairy' wings!
