One of Jerry's proudest moments was when he opened Scott Floors in 1977. Jerry's favorite pastime was playing Black Jack and Hunting. He would be sitting in his office reminiscing with friends & listening to old country on his jukebox. He had the biggest heart that one man could have. Jerry was a jack of all trades and a teacher of many things. There will never be another like him and many in the past have said, "They broke the mold when they made you."
