

Gerrard Difloe

July 15, 1924 - December 4, 2011

Gerrard W. Difloe passed away 12/4/2011 at the age of 87. A memorial service is pending at a later date. Gerrard was born on July 15, 1924 in Detroit, MI. He was preceded in death by his wife of 56 years, JoAnn Difloe. He is survived by his son James Difloe and daughter Nettie Bird. 4 Grandchildren, Celeste & Kenny Bird, Jean-Paul and Shelaine Difloe. 3 great-grandchildren, Tyler Teddar, Carter & Kase Bird and many nieces and nephews Jerry as he was known by and Uncle Bud to others lived a long and full life. A WWII Marine Corps combat veteran and a lifelong Merchant Marine Mariner sailing around the world, he loved the sea as much as he loved his family. In lieu of flowers please send your remembrances to your local VFW. God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be. So He put His arms around you, and whispered "Come to Me". With tearful eyes we watched you, we watched you fade away. Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands now rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best.

“ JAMES AND FAMILY:

We always remembered Gerry, or grandDad as we heard from him, as a selfless person, kindhearted, smiling, lenient, that irradiated confidence and peace. There's no doubt he is now joyful with Joan, his beloved wife, in God's kingdom. This couple will be in our hearts for the rest of our life. We pray for their spiritual rest. “ James and Family,

I'm sorry to hear of your Dad's passing. I'm Paul's youngest brother from St. Augustine. I saw that your mother passed not too long ago. I remember her as a teacher at St. Aug and that your Dad "traveled around the world on a ship". One time you gave Paul a can of squid that your dad brought back from Japan. That can sat in the pantry for years unopened (haha). Remember that you have many friends out there praying for you at this time of loss. God Bless your Dad!
