“ When I first met Ginger it was in High School. She and I met in woodshop class with Mr. Hundley. I had a reputation for driving Mr. Hundley crazy and giving him a hard time. Ginger laughed at all of my jokes. We then became the best of friends. We were both into surfing and wearing Quicksilver shirts. We rode to school in my old red Ford truck everyday. We became a crew of friends. Josh, Ashley, Ryan, Ashley Howard and myself. We did everything together. Josh and I got into plenty of trouble but Ginger always kept us both in line. I miss her big beautiful smile, her laugh and all the good times we had driving around Huntsville. To this day I still tell stories of our past adventures and funny stories. Even the one called the "200 Head of Cattle" story. Where we were on someone's land (when we shouldn't have been) and we accidentally started a stampede of 200 Black Angus cattle that nearly ran us over. I'll never forget those days of my high school years and all the joy and laughter that Ginger brought to my life.

I miss you Ginger Anne Key and you will always be my best bud!

“ Bobby,

I have not seen you in 15 years and still to this day I hold a special place in my heart for you and your family. I know Ginger is your world and you are in great pain right now but know that everyone is here for you. I may be 1500 miles away but I am just a phone call away also. Stay strong, and know we all love you dearly.

The Balm Of God's Love

*When we lose someone we love
The loss seems too great to bear
God sends us friends to comfort us
To show that He deeply cares*

*But in the dark hours of the night
When there's nobody else around
When we feel the saddest and loneliest
It's there God's love can be found*

*It's like a soothing, healing balm
To soothe our broken hearts
The healing oil poured over us
That flows into every part*

*We can rest secure in God's love
And know He's by our side
He holds us when we feel as though
A part of us has died*

*We can know that God will listen
When we just want to talk
And when we feel we need to cry
We can share it with the Lord*

*For He is always waiting there Ready with arms open wide
As we pour out the hurt within
He pours His love inside*

*Our Father above loves us so much
And will never leave us alone
He will not forsake us in our need
To face this on our own*

*He comforts us and strengthens us
And rubs us with His balm
And as the dawn breaks through the night
We'll awake in His loving arms.*

“ Many times we needed you,
a million times we cried,
If love could have saved you,
you would have never died.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you did not go alone,
A part of us went with you when God called you home.

“ We were blessed to have known and loved Ginger since she was a child. Her beautiful blue eyes, bright smile, and wonderful sense of humor will be remembered by our family always. We were again blessed to have shared in the birth of Matt and Madilynn, and were anxiously awaiting the arrival of Anne Michelle. For reasons we do not know, God called them home last Friday. We are deeply saddened that they are no longer here with us, but we will rejoice in the time that God gave us with them. We will tell Matt and Madilynn stories of their mother and see that she and Anne Michelle live on in our memories. May God bless all of you and give you the strength to carry on. We Love You, Bobby, Liz, Joshua, Ashley, Ashtyn, & Ayden

“ I've only known Ginger for a short time, but the time that I did was a blessing. I'm sorry for your loss Bobby, and Ginger's family. As hard as it may be each day will get better. I know it doesn't seem like it right now, but you know have a new focus on keeping her memory alive for the beautiful gifts of life God and Ginger gave you. Love them, hug them, kiss them, tell them stories, play with them, let them know how special their mother was. It's up to you to keep her alive for that little girl.
