“ During a tumultuous year at Dacus BC, Glenn was a solid supporter, who made difficult times so much better. The trip we took to Florida together is something my wife and I still talk and joke about. You brought us joy Glenn, and you were in my mind a man of great integrity and faithfulness, and you always will be. I'll never forget Wednesday nights and the big magnifying glass thing you used to bring to church so you could read your Bible. I am so glad that we spoke on the phone before I moved to a new home far away from Montgomery. Enjoy your rest faithful servant.

Mr. Egly was a dear sweet man who was loved by my husband and I. He was always kind and gentle with everyone, but when we needed a firm hand or talking to, he was good at that too. He knew every hymn in the hymnbook and sang with gusto. When he finally had to leave us and go to live with his son, I truly missed him. Rest easy there in the arms of Jesus Mr. Egly. If they put stars in your crown for all of the people you helped, someone is having to carry yours because it is too heavy. Go with God, laugh, sing real loud, and keep an eye on us here in Dacus. You are missed and loved by all of us.
