

Glenna Sue Holloman

July 26, 1952 - November 13, 2021

Glenna Holloman, 69, of Bedias, Texas died November 13, 2021. She was born July 26, 1952 in Houston, Texas to Clifford and Ruth "Stampley" Holloman. In 1975 Glenna graduated from Sam Houston State University and later earned a Masters Degree from St. Edward's University in 1994. She retired from TDCJ after many years of service.

Glenna is preceded in death by her parents Clifford and Ruth, and some dear friends. Glenna is survived by her 3 siblings, their spouses, 1 nephew and 3 nieces.

Glenna was dedicated in her profession. She had a generous and loving heart, often thinking of others. She often made donations to churches in the area to help youth groups. Glenna made many friends that lasted a lifetime. She loved all animals and believed in rescuing, and over the years she gave many animals a loving home. Glenna loved her family, especially her nephew and 3 nieces. She was looking forward to the arrival of her first great niece. There will be no public services.

“ Sad to learn of Glenna Sue's death. As flower girl along side her brother Leon, she was a special part of our wedding in 1956. And we have fond memories of her at many family times, especially at Christmas times in Houston, San Leon and on Lake Livingston. Our prayers are with her many friends and family.
