“ As I read these condolences, good memories come flooding back of happy times growing up in Houston. How long has it been since I actually thought about the year I was the "sweetheart" for the Larks Little League team??? I'm so glad Bill and I were in school together from kindergarten through high school since that gave us the privilege of knowing the Stephens family all those years. I saw "Mr. and Mrs. Stephens" (as I always called them) as faithful long-time friends of my parents and they were the kind of people I knew I could call in an emergency if I couldn't reach my own mom or dad. Mr. Stephens was unfailingly kind and gentle, but you knew he was tough too! He exemplified honesty and integrity and was the type of man that every policeman in the world should model himself after. He loved God, he loved his family and friends, his was a life well-lived - and I know he will be deeply missed. But we rejoice to know that at this moment, he is in the very presence of the Lord. Especially to Beth and Bill and family, may that assurance bring you much comfort and peace of heart in the days ahead. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His godly ones." (Ps. 116:15) I truly wish I could be at the service but please know that our prayers are with you.

“ I have such fond memories starting all the way back at the kids' Peck Elementary throughout our lives. Steve was such a kind and gentle man that our whole family loved.

Beth, you and your family are in our prayers, that God will comfort you in this loss, but help you find peace that Steve is with the Lord. We love you.

“ Old times, Old friends, Fond memories...Peck School and Southeast National Baseball (The Larks, in particular). Our most favorite battery has always been Larry on the mound and Willie behind the plate. Steve taught our son to be a real "East Texas Red-Neck". May God wrap his loving arms around you during this time and just know that one of the first to greet Steve when he entered The Gate was our son Terry, ready with a ball and glove and anxious for a game of catch. We thrive on the memories of days gone by, and the Stephens family is certainly a part of those memories.

“ Based on what we know of Bill Stephens, we can conclude that Harold Stephens must have been a fine man. Thank you for the compassion and charity you have always shown the Volkmers. Our family is praying for you and yours during this season.

“ I was truly saddened today when my Dad came and told me I had lost one of the father figures of my life. I was in Houston about to catch a flight to Florida when I got the news of Mr. Harold's passing.

Although the years have separated us I can truly say that the whole Stephens family has stayed in my heart. I am so proud to say when people ask me where I was raised that I can say Houston and Stockman Texas.

Mr. Harold was bigger than life to me as a child, a cop and a hero. He gave me my first ride on a motorcylce, found my glasses in the pond, and told me it was alright when I hit Willie with a ball when we were in Little League.
(me and Willie both cried)

I could write for days on those childhood experiences that he was a part of. He helped show me the love of the Piney Woods and that is where I live today.

He was always like having and extra Dad, Mrs. Beth and extra Mom, and of course Willie my best friend and extra brother.

My heart goes out to you all. I truly wish I could be there. I know he waits on us all now and we shall all be together again one day.

From a friend and extra son,
Larry
