“ When Sterling and I were pre teen, we were best buddies, he was shorter than I, and I reminded him I could run faster. Back then I could,He began to grow taller and taller and I remained the same, so now he was taller and could out run me, We did havea great child hood. As adults we went sepweate ways, I always knew He would be a wonderful father, and provider for his family. Bless you brother dear, You can now be with your wife, you adored. Terri, bless you, remember how very much he loved you.....Judy Stephens ( older sister of Sterling)
