“ My sincere condolences to the Wingate family. Mr. Wingate was a good man and will be missed. As neighbors growing up in Houston Texas I had fond memories of spending many days at the Wingate residence in Houston Texas playing with sons Leslie, Eddie, and Chuck.

“ I was a part of the St. Thomas group who took Holy Communion to Mr. Wingate. It was always a pleasure to be able to give him Holy Communion and to visit with him for those few short minutes and on a few occasions to refill his coffee cup. He loved receiving Holy Communion - and his coffee.
Rest in Peace Mr. Wingate; we will miss you.

“ My wife, Janet, and I were part of a group from St. Thomas who took turns bringing Holy Communion to Harvey when he was at Green Acres. We looked forward to visiting with him, and we know that he was very serious about receiving Communion. Indeed, he would tease us with a "You're late!" if something held us up. We will miss him.
