“ I am the one who drove your Mom and mine to all of these places that Ruth mentioned. I remember driving them to East Texas to see the Dogwood and azelea's blooming in the spring. One time we were on a Farm to Market road with asphalt, then it turned into a sandy dirt road into the wood. They thought I was lost, but they were surprised that we came out on the correct road; and I said see I knew where we were going. We had the best time seeing God's handiwork, the beautiful Piney woods of East Texas.

Your Mother is a very "special lady". I loved your Mom very much. I will and have missed all the wonderful times that we did together.

My Mom (Ruth Teal) and I are lifting you, the Burton Family, up in prayer during this difficult time. May our caring Lord surround you with HIS comforting arms.

*We love you and your Mom, Hazel.

“ To the family of Hazel Burton,
Hazel had many friends. I am thankful that I was one of them. We had lots of enjoyment on the trips we took together. I think of the time we went to the Dogwood Festival in Woodville, TX, east Texas. It turned so cold we had to take blankets off the beds in the motel room to wrap around us at the night pageant. Another time we went to Tyler to the Rose Festival. Our motel reservation got mixed up, thought for a while we didn't have a place to sleep that night. I have many good memories, I'll always cherish and I know you do too. I feel I know her family for she was always telling me about her Boys; then when you married and her precious grand-babies.

Rod and Gary, I only knew you when you were little boys and came to Woolworth to toy shop. That started my friendship with your Mother. When I joined Willow Meadows Baptist Church, there she was in the Sunday School class that I was taken to.

May you also find peace and comfort in the precious memories of yesterday.

Love,
Ruth Teal
